

Call for Volunteer Fundraising Team Co-Leader

SASA is looking for a Volunteer (unpaid) Fundraising Team Leader to help SASA find funding for our projects related to Ancient Studies public outreach and access. They must be flexible, adaptive, and comfortable working independently as new projects and tasks emerge.

Salary: unpaid

Duration: open-ended

Hours: 10-15 hours per week

Location: remote with regular weekly meetings online

Application deadline: rolling

Skills Needed: Communication | Planning & Organization | Interpersonal | Research | Management | Fundraising experience (desirable)

Position Description & Responsibilities:

As Fundraising Team Leader you will work as part of the Fundraising Team to support the organization's fundraising priorities by writing reports, cultivating relationships with funders, and identifying new fundraising opportunities, as well as as well as strategize on approaches for adding new funders and increasing gifts from current funders.

Responsibilities include:

- Lead weekly team meetings
- Cultivate and write proposals, acknowledgements, and follow-up reports
- Meet with other team leaders to discuss fitting funding opportunities
- Cultivate relationships with new, potential, and existing donors and funders
- Strategize on approaches for adding new funders and increasing gifts from current funders
- Support and manage the rest of the team of volunteers as requires

To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to the recruitment email address, recruitment@saveancientstudies.org.

About SASA

SASA is a non-profit organization, tax exempt under IRS code 501(c)(3). SASA's mission is to counter the downward trend in Ancient Studies fields in academia, by (1) uniting graduate students to (2) engage students by guiding the widespread American interest in ancient times toward Ancient Studies, to (3) facilitate ease of access to studying the ancient world, and to (4) support and reimagine scholarship as a lifelong pursuit for those who work as professionals in other areas after receiving their PhDs.

At this time, all positions with SASA are unpaid, including management, volunteers, and interns, save for some few project positions paid for through grant funding. Since work for SASA is all done remotely, we take a proactive approach to supporting our volunteers and interns. Our goal is that work with SASA is mutually beneficial, such that volunteers help work on various SASA projects and gain experience in multiple areas, learn skills, gain knowledge, and build connections with numerous people in Ancient Studies and the nonprofit world. Interns work alongside volunteers with more experience and under the guidance of our Team Leaders and the Director. Our work atmosphere is exploratory and collaborative. We all enjoy the company of people who have varied backgrounds and interests of all ages, and who are passionate in their pursuit.

Property of Save Ancient Studies Alliance - SASA, 2025