

Call for Volunteer Research Team Co-Leader

SASA is looking for a Volunteer (unpaid) research team co-leader to assist the research team in facilitating the completion of weekly tasks. This position is most well-suited for someone with past research leadership experience who is seeking to gain new experiences within the world of ancient studies. They must be flexible, adaptive, and comfortable working independently as new projects and tasks emerge.

Salary: unpaid

Duration: ongoing volunteer

Hours: 10 hours per week

Application Deadline: ongoing

Location: remote with regular weekly meetings online

Skills Needed: Communication | Leadership | Research Experience | Time Management

Position Description & Responsibilities:

As the Research team co-leader you will work as part of the research team in conjunction with the other research team leader to effectively run the research team. This will include ensuring the projects the research team is working on are moving forward and being completed. This will take strong leadership skills in leading interns and volunteers as well as effective communication skills in conveying the goals of what SASA is aiming to achieve.

Examples of responsibilities include:

- Assisting in leading the interns and volunteers on the research team
- Communicating team needs and objectives within team and SASA as a whole
- Research assignments as assigned
- Attending monthly team leader meetings
- Comfortable assigning tasks to interns/volunteers

To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to recruitment@saveancientstudies.org.

About SASA

SASA is a non-profit organization, tax exempt under IRS code 501(c)(3). SASA's mission is to counter the downward trend in Ancient Studies fields in academia, by (1) uniting graduate students to (2) engage students by guiding the widespread American interest in ancient times toward Ancient Studies, to (3) facilitate ease of access to studying the ancient world, and to (4) support and reimagine scholarship as a lifelong pursuit for those who work as professionals in other areas after receiving their PhDs.

At this time, all positions with SASA are unpaid, including management, volunteers, and interns, save for some few project positions paid for through grant funding. Since work for SASA is all done remotely, we take a proactive approach to supporting our volunteers and interns. Our goal is that internships with SASA are mutually beneficial, such that volunteers help work on various SASA projects and gain experience in multiple areas, learn skills, gain knowledge, and build connections with numerous people in Ancient Studies and the nonprofit world. Interns work alongside volunteers with more experience and under the guidance of our Team Leaders and the Director. Our work atmosphere is exploratory and collaborative. We all enjoy the company of people who have varied backgrounds and interests of all ages, and who are passionate in their pursuit.

Property of Save Ancient Studies Alliance - SASA, 2023