

Call for Spanish- and/or Arabic-Speaking Volunteer Translators for Website

SASA is looking for Spanish- and/or Arabic-Speaking Volunteer Translators to assist the Access team in translating SASA's website. This position is well-suited for someone who can speak and write various languages. They must be flexible, adaptive, and comfortable working independently as new projects and tasks emerge.

Salary: unpaid

Duration: ongoing

Hours: 5-15 hours per week

Application Deadline: ongoing

Location: remote with regular weekly meetings online

Skills Needed: Communication | Bilingual | Detail-oriented

Position Description & Responsibilities:

As a translator, you will work as part of the Access team to translate SASA's website into Spanish and/or Arabic. We are seeking those fluent in Spanish and/or Arabic. This position is not for those interested in learning a new language but instead is for those interested in helping translate texts and ancient works into various languages.

Examples of responsibilities include:

- Translating texts to different languages
- Attending remote meetings with the Access team
- Collaborating with others on the team to promote the project

To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to recruitment@saveancientstudies.org.

About SASA

SASA is a non-profit organization, tax exempt under IRS code 501(c)(3). Save Ancient Studies Alliance works to promote the study of the Ancient World and engagement with our human deeper pasts. Building a grassroots movement through outreach, collaboration, accessibility, and public scholarship, we work toward our goal of inspiring a wide, inclusive community of scholars, learners, and students.

At this time, all positions with SASA are unpaid, including management, volunteers, and interns, save for some few project positions paid for through grant funding. Since work for SASA is all done remotely, we take a proactive approach to supporting our volunteers and interns. Our goal is that internships with SASA are mutually beneficial, such that volunteers help work on various SASA projects and gain experience in multiple areas, learn skills, gain knowledge, and build connections with numerous people in Ancient Studies and the nonprofit world. Interns work alongside volunteers with more experience and under the guidance of our Team Leaders and the Director. Our work atmosphere is exploratory and collaborative. We all enjoy the company of people who have varied backgrounds and interests of all ages, and who are passionate in their pursuit.
