

Proceedings of the Opening the Ancient World
Virtual Conference, 2021

Religion, History, and Culture

edited by

David Danzig, Megan Lewis, Georgina Longley, Rachael B. Goldman, Bryan Kinzbrunner, and Anh Nguyen

Archaeopress
Oxford

Contents

Introduction

David Danzig and Megan Lewis

The Elamite version of the Behistun inscription: new perspectives and insights

Saber Amiri Parian

The old religious traditions used in the new context by Haggai

Joseph Chung

The Hole in the Narrative: Philosophical Convention and Divine Mercy in Mark 1–3

Matthijs Kronemeijer

An ancient Greek's modern blueprint: Religion and religious conduct in the Histories of Polybius

Georgina Longley

Politics and Plague: Disease, Democracy, and Athens

Ariadne Schulz

Lapis Lazuli Cylinder Seals of Ur: Third Millennium BC Burial Trends

Alison Manley

Reading the Ruins and Ancient Jewish Memory: An Investigation into Monuments and Inscriptions

Rachael B. Goldman

Evolution of Chariots from war vehicles to symbols of the Divine – A proposal for how the phrase Ma'aseh Merkabah became the description of Jewish Mysticism

Bryan Kinzbrunner

Disabled, Disinherited, and Decisive Daughter: An Assessment of Labda in the Corinth Founding Myth

Emily McElroy

Your Warriors Will Become Women: The Feminization of Exiles, Captives, and Survivors in Ancient Jehud

Ron Clark